

DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In RE: John E Broccoli pro se

JUL-03 '17 PM12:36

PLAINTIFF

WEBSTER BANK, N.A.
~~DEFENDANT~~

CANo. 1:17-bk-10552

CANo. 1:17-2D-01012

Amended Complaint

WEBSTER BANK, N.A.

Now comes PLAINTIFF pro se, John E. Broccoli

in the above captioned matter based on the

Plaintiff's best effort to delineate the basis for this action against Webster Bank, N.A., DEFENDANT'S amongst more specifics 8th, 6th, 5th and those that apply to the absences and omissions in the "Contract(s)" as they apply to this Plaintiff.

DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In RE: John E Broccoli, prose

PLAINTIFF

CA No. 1:17-bk-10552

WEBSTER BANK N.A.

CA No. 1:17-bd-01012

DEFENDANT

With further Discovery your Plaintiff will prove that without justification, "The BANK" took action's contrary to "The Bank's" own laws of contract.

b) Likely papered over document's - internally to defendant.

The Bank's own action's to deny this Plaintiff internal process and those the United States laws reinforces.

eg. In addition to the objected to the Chapter 13

STAY being in effect on the "Foreclosure" date,

c) Non-judicial laws of foreclosure in the State of

Rhode Island § 34-27-1.1. Eg. The exclusion of

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In RE: John E. Broccoli, prose

DEFENDANT

WEBSTER BANK NA

PLAINTIFF

CANo: 1:17-bk-10552

CANo: 1:17-ap-01012

a legal notice of foreclosure, before the sale.

§ 34-27-3.1

In the spirit of judicial economy YOUR PLAINTIFF

can, and, will, prove more violations of The Banks, positing, of Decision making Superiority.

Relief in lieu of "KEY'S"

Your prose, Plaintiff, believes it the best resolution,

all penalties and illegalities caused by the Bank

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In RE: John E. Broccoli, prose
PLAINTIFF

WEBSTER BANK N.A.
DEFENDANT

CA No: 1:17-bk-10552

CA No: 1:17-ap-01012

to Settle for a fair amount, of $200,000,

(TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND Dollars) without a doubt this U.S. Court is fully aware of the conduct of the banks' abuse in Our Country.

Your Plaintiff, while out of procedural order is able to deduce conduct contrary to good faith and also the letter and priorities of the inconsistencies of "The Banks" conduct. In all fairness and respect, I

Plaintiff seek these damages, with all cooperation.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In RE: John E. Broccoli, pro se

PLAINTIFF

WEBSTER BANK NA

DEFENDANT

CANo. 1:17-bk-10552

CANo 1:17-ap-01012

CERTIFICATION

I, John E. Broccoli, pro se, do hereby swear a TRUE COPY was mailed return receipt to:

WEBSTER BANK
% James Atchinson Esq
1080 Main St
Pawtucket, RI 02886

CLERK of U.S. Bankruptcy Court
380 Westminster St.
Providence, RI 02903
6th Floor

The attached copy sent to the above on 8-29-17.
6-29-17.

John E. Broccoli
John E. Broccoli, pro se
23 Mariavold Circle
North Prov, R.I. 02904